Policy Alert

SUBJECT: Impact of INA 212(f) on USCIS' Adjudication of Discretionary Benefits

Purpose

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) is issuing policy guidance in the USCIS Policy Manual addressing the President's recent exercise of his authority under section 212(f) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) through Presidential Proclamation 10949, "Restricting the Entry of Foreign Nationals To Protect the United States from Foreign Terrorists and Other National Security and Public Safety Threats"¹ (PP 10949) and its impact on USCIS adjudications.

Background

INA 212(f) authorizes the President to, by proclamation, suspend the entry of all aliens or any class of aliens, or impose on the entry of aliens any restrictions he may deem appropriate. On June 4, 2025, the President issued PP 10949 to exercise his INA 212(f) authority and suspend the entry or admission of aliens from nineteen countries.² With certain exceptions,³ PP 10949 applies to aliens who are outside of the United States on or after June 9, 2025 and who do not have a valid visa on or after June 9, 2025.

Effective immediately, USCIS will consider relevant country-specific facts and circumstances such as those outlined in PP 10949 as part of its adjudication of discretionary benefit requests. Discretionary benefit requests that USCIS adjudicates include, but are not limited to, certain adjustment of status applications, extension of nonimmigrant stay, and change of nonimmigrant status. USCIS is now updating its guidance to explain how INA 212(f) and PP 10949 impact USCIS' exercise of discretion.

This guidance, contained in Volume 1 of the Policy Manual, applies to requests pending or filed on or after the publication date. The guidance contained in the Policy Manual is controlling and supersedes any related prior guidance.

Policy Highlights

¹ See 90 FR 24497 (June 4, 2025).

³ The Proclamation also includes certain exceptions to the suspension of and limitation on entry (for example, lawful permanent residents and certain immigrant and nonimmigrant categories are excepted). See Section 4(b)-(d) of PP 10949, 90 FR 24497, 24503 (June 4, 2025).

- Provides country-specific factors that include but are not limited to insufficient vetting and screening information that limits USCIS' ability to assess the risks posed by aliens from the countries identified in PP 10949.
